Power searchers, your time has come!

Matrix has always been known for the power and sophistication of our search programs, but this time Stephen (Erlewine) has outdone himself. This new program is, by unanimous agreement, the most powerful search program ever available to astrologers.

*A Professional-Level Astrological Search Program
By R. Stephen Erlewine*

Who is it for – serious counseling astrologers, researchers, mundane astrologers, electional astrologers, and anyone with an insatiable curiosity about what the future holds – or perhaps why something occurred in the past.

Matrix Search software gives you the power to create and save personalized searches that you can then access instantly, or you can use the pre-programmed One-Click Select Searches that include the standard:

- ▶ Transit-to-Transit Searches
- ▶ Transit-to-Natal Searches
- ▶ Progressed-to-Natal Searches
- ▶ Transit-to-Progressed Searches
- ▶ Arc-to-Natal Searches
- ▶ Pattern Searches.

Add any planet, object, or point in the universe to your searches – built into the program are standard points, including Zodiac Point, Eclipse or Lunation before birth, Arabic Parts, Fixed Stars, Astro Expression, Synodic Point, Natal chart points, Natal Cusps. But, you can go where no astrologer has gone before and add absolutely any object or point you consider significant.

Matrix Search software's flexible display lets you view your searches as a scan – click and zoom – or as a list, click and instantly pop-up a chart of that event; see all of the influences at play in a given moment.

Sorts and Filters are the key to any search, especially when you can produce life scans that may contain up to 32,000 hits. Matrix Search software lets you sort, sift, and filter your results so that you can focus on exactly what you are looking for, and see what is important.

One-Click Pre-set sorts include: Time; Planet Pairs; Planets Time; Aspects; Events; Search Types; Enter, Exact, Leaving; Exact, Enter, Leaving; Planet 1's position; Planet 2's position.

One-Click Select searches are pre-programmed for 1 and 3 days; 1 and 2 weeks; 1, 2, 3, and 6 months; 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 60, and 90 years. Or select the exact length of your search.

Life-Time scans/searches are perhaps one of the most interesting and exciting things you can view, and share with a client.

What you see with Matrix Search software you determine. Some of the One-Click instant views include Lunations, Eclipses, Lunar Phases, Void of Course Moon, Stations, Sign Ingresses, House Ingresses, Equinoxes and Solstices, Synodic Cycles, Aspect, Aspect Combinations, Chart Patterns, Moon Apogees and Perigees, Lunar Days. All of the program's output is in convenient PDF format for easy saving, printing, and e-mailing.

“Horizons is the next generation of astromapping software. It offers significant advances in many areas, and is surprisingly easy to use.

Both those just starting out in locational astrology and advanced practitioners of the art will love this program”

*Mountain Astrologer Magazine
Hand Friedman*

Meet the new Standard for Professional Relocation Software.

New Horizons software is the natural evolution of relocation astrology through decades of Matrix Software’s collaboration with people like Jim Lewis, the master of Astro*Carto*Graphy, and Michael Erlewine, the company’s founder and the originator of the Local Space technique, now prominent among leading relocation astrologers worldwide. From those auspicious roots, New Horizons has moved relocation astrology and astromapping to an entirely new, and higher level, of flexibility and sophistication.

Whether you are selecting a place to vacation, move to, or do business, you gain a powerful advantage if you know what influences will affect you there. If the choice of location is yours, New Horizons can help you select a place that will enhance the activity or area of your life you wish to positively influence. If you do not have the option of selecting the location – you still gain tremendously by understanding the geographic influence on your relocated chart.

In business and in life this knowledge can mean the difference between success and failure in your endeavors.

The most powerful suite of astrology relocation tools, an intuitive easy-to-use interface, and extensive interpretive guides make this the ideal software for any astrologer interested in the influences of geography on a chart.

Astro★Talk

Natal Report by Michael Erlewine

You can tailor a natal report to exactly fit your customer's interests. Astro★Talk gives you ten different chapters – ten different perspectives on any natal chart. Select just the chapters you need or choose them all for in-depth natal interpretations.

An Astro★Talk report is a great way to introduce someone to astrology, and their own natal chart.

The Astro★Talk Natal Report produces one of the finest astrological horoscopes ever made. The report's no-nonsense description of the basic planetary configurations present in your life and how they affect you has provided insight to thousands of people.

Text for Astro★Talk was written by Michael Erlewine. The depth of his understanding of the natal influences and his concise writing style result in a refreshingly clear, easy to read report.

Inside an Astro★Talk report

▶ Introduction

To help a client understand the value of their report, each begins with a brief introduction to astrology and the key concepts used by today's astrologers when interpreting a chart.

▶ The planets

The first and largest chapter of the report takes the reader through the planets and their aspects, beginning with the Lights (Sun and Moon). You have a choice of nine different aspect sets, plus the option of including or omitting any combination of planets. An important feature is the use of two sets of interpretations for each aspect pair. This means no duplications in the text on planetary aspects.

▶ Life landscapes

These Saturn transits in the Grant Lewi style provide a description of your major life period: your personal background, plus a close-up look at your current situation complete with exact dates of Saturn transits.

▶ Burn rate

Do you run hot and fast? Do things in your life change rapidly? Or is your life less turbulent and more straightforward? Discover what your "burn rate" is. Burn rate is based on a very new and exciting technique. The geocentric and heliocentric positions of the planets are analyzed, and the planets in high focus are interpreted. Find out if your burn rate is high, low, or in-between and whether the majority of your planets are in the past, present, or future.

▶ Chart patterns/soul type

Both geocentric and heliocentric charts are analyzed for major chart patterns and then interpreted. Your inner self is contrasted with your outer personality. Keys to both inner and outer aspects are delineated. Even your personal hot spot (the most aspected planet) is described.

▶ Elemental balance

This section gives an analysis of elements, modalities, and angularities. Which do you have in abundance and which are you lacking? Measuring these gives a general picture of the person.

▶ Challenges & abilities

Here is a second breakdown of planetary aspects, describing areas of intense focus and activity. Challenges can be difficult, requiring caution and extra patience. Abilities are areas of clear insight and real talent.

▶ Interface nodes

Interface Nodes provides a complete heliocentric planetary node analysis. The position of each planet in relation to the orbital planes of the other planets is indicated by either inclinations (likes) or disinclinations (dislikes). The nodes represent our root level or core – our innermost qualities.

▶ House activity and emphasis

This is a six- to eight-page report on this very important basic part of astrology. Houses, signs, and planets in houses are looked at in this section.

▶ Major transits

Astro★Talk calculates and interprets transits for Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto. It gives dates when the next major transits for these planets are exact in your chart.

▶ Explanatory supplement

A 15-page introduction to the astrological terms and concepts used in Astro★Talk report writer. Like any of the other chapters, you can choose to include this in your printouts or not. It's a valuable part of the report for your customers who would like to learn more about astrology.

I am "addicted" to your software and have extended my knowledge of astrology by leaps and bounds.

Heaven Knows What

Natal Report by Grant Lewi

Grant Lewi's astrological interpretations provide the model that today's astrologers strive to achieve.

A Grant Lewi report is a remarkable document, offering you a sense of clarity and understanding to give you the confidence you need to make the decisions you must make to achieve personal fulfillment.

This is truly intelligent software; conditional statements are programmed within the software that work in the same manner as Lewi himself did: one aspect is modified because there is another contributing aspect in the chart that impacts the interpretations and the conclusions drawn when viewing the chart as a comprehensive whole.

If you don't know a birth time, this is the natal report to use — Lewi focused on the factors that were in effect throughout the birth day. The only exception to this is the Moon, which can move between 12 and 14 degrees in a day, so if the positions were calculated for noon then the Moon could be as much as six or seven degrees different and possibly even change signs. So if you don't know your exact birth time, you may want to compare reports done for the beginning and the end of the day to determine which best reflects the personality and character of the person's chart you are interpreting.

Transits are included to reflect current energies as they affect natal tendencies.

To quote Grant Lewi:

"Astrology, through the interpretation of the horoscope, assists men to the achievement of their maximum by indicating to them the lines along which their will may be most progressively applied, the goals to be sought, and the individual means by which each one may arrive at the outermost boundaries of his world."

Past Lives

Advanced Natal Report by Bernie Ashman

Advanced Astrologers have begun to explore the idea of applying karmic law to the interpretation of natal charts.

They have developed techniques that they feel allow you to glimpse past patterns – and we are not referring to those set earlier in life, but in previous existence – and then view the current natal chart through those patterns and tendencies from previous lives.

Master astrologer Bernie Ashman is among those perfecting the techniques for displaying past life experience, and superimposing it on the present chart. The results are intriguing, and for many astrologers very revealing.

Bernie speaks of the many “AHA!” experiences he has had with clients as confusing discrepancies within their present natal chart were suddenly clarified and resolved.

This technique displays life as a continual evolution. This Past Lives report software interprets the resulting chart and provides insight into the talents we possess and obstacles we face as a result of issues we continue to work through in each successive reality.

A glimpse at the past life technique
House are counted in a clockwise (retrograde) direction from the 12th which is the past lives ascendant. The Nodes of the Moon always move retrograde, and of course Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto do for part of a year as well. When a planet moves retrograde it is moving in the natural flow and rhythm or a past lives chart. Read more about this technique at www.astrologysoftware.com

Opportunities

Advanced Natal Report by Stephanie Clement, Ph.D.

The “perfect job” blurs the line between work and play. It makes you want to leap out of bed in the morning. It satisfies to the depths of your soul. It's out there waiting for you. Opportunities can help you find it.

We spend much of our lives at work. Thus, it is no wonder that our jobs often define who we are. Yet most people are unhappy in their jobs, making it one of the most common problems posed to astrologers.

What career should I pursue? Why am I unhappy in my present job? Why do I feel like I'm just going through the motions and missing out on life? All of these questions are addressed in Opportunities.

Opportunities produces a personal report which details different planetary influences on your career and shows you how to balance them for success. This report is a must for young adults, college students, and people seeking a second or a more satisfying career. It is especially attuned to those individuals seeking a higher purpose than a paycheck.

Sections of the report cover:

- ▶ Your Ascendant - a basic indicator of how you interact with the world.
- ▶ Your creative touch and its role in career.
- ▶ Your psychological strengths and your personal interactive style.
- ▶ Saturn and Mars as vocational indicators - where hard work will have the best results, and how you tend to apply your energy to that work.
- ▶ Career success - how your reputation is built through work.
- ▶ The best work environment for you - the place and the people.
- ▶ Financial considerations and self-esteem.
- ▶ Career or mission - a look at heliocentric indicators of your higher purpose.

If you are serious about astrological counseling, Opportunities is a must.

Love, Family, Friends, Business – a Friends & Lovers report takes you inside any relationship (or potential relationship); to offer you insights that can result in more satisfying and fulfilling personal relationships on every level.

Friends & Lovers

by Michael Erlewine

Friends & Lovers profiles are written just for the two of you: a counseling astrologer's guided tour of your relationship. Friends & Lovers calculates two personal horoscopes, compares them in detail, and prints an in-depth profile of what's happening between you astrologically. Each Friends & Lovers report is written in four parts which look at the relationship from your perspective as well as the other person's.

► First, explore how you approach relationships in general. Do you have an easy time becoming close to someone? What are the traits that will influence all your relationships – from your childhood friends to your business associates? The clues are in your birth chart. Friends & Lovers finds and interprets them in the first portion of each report.

► Second, how are these same questions answered in the other person's chart? What do they bring to each relationship that helps or hinders?

- Third, how you relate to this person in particular: how your two charts intertwine to create the feelings you are experiencing.
- Fourth, how your partner relates to you. How will you two get along? What role does each play here? The answers are fascinating, and many people are startled to find just how revealing their Friends & Lovers report is.

You can produce these profiles in either of two versions: romance reports for lovers or profiles on non-romantic relationships. The program adapts its interpretive text, depending on your selection.

Friends & Lovers profiles are in demand. These reports make great gifts – and selling them is a good way to make your computer pay for itself. The Professional version of Friends & Lovers is geared to the high-volume output of a profitable report business.

Take a fascinating look at your family and friendships... and your business relationships, too!

Simpáticos

Relationship Report by Bernie Ashman

The traditional way to look at relationships astrologically has been comparing the different elements of two individual charts. Our Simpáticos software takes a different approach, it creates and examines a composite chart.

A relatively new technique, composite charts were once considered on the radical fringe of astrology. But, over the past decades the quality of the information they offer has won over even the most ardent traditionalist in the astrological community.

Rather than examining the charts of two unique individuals, Simpáticos employs a composite chart to examine the thing created when two people come together, it gives life to, and “animates” the relationship itself, then analyzes the energies within it.

If you have been in a close relationship of any duration, then you have experienced the effect when the relationship takes on a power, and a life of its own – often separate from the identities of the individuals. Examining this power gives you new insights into the relationship, and a level of understanding that can empower both of you.

A Simpáticos reports you create are divided into four sections:

- ▶ The Playing Field
- ▶ The Players
- ▶ The Aspects
- ▶ The Nodes of the Moon.

Combine Simpáticos with our Friends & Lovers software and you have the most powerful relationship duo ever produced for astrologers.

Life Progressions

Forecasting Report by Sophia Mason

The next chapter in your life story may be the best yet!

The physical, emotional, and spiritual changes we experience throughout the course of our lives can be predicted and plotted by carefully observing the progression of our natal chart through time. Life Progressions reveals the opportunities and challenges you may encounter in the coming weeks, months, and years.

These are exciting reports that can help you make the right choices at the right time and avoid unnecessary stumbles and pitfalls as you proceed through the maze of life. Life Progressions reports offer direction and guidance to keep you on a successful path to realizing your full potential.

Reports provide detailed interpretations for the progressed house cusps and planet positions in the houses. The program notes when planets change signs or go retrograde. These are automatically found and interpreted for you. In addition, the “cross aspects” between planets in your birth chart and those in the progressed chart are included.

A Life Progressions report includes:

- ▶ Secondary MC ▶ Daily Houses ▶ All Solar Arc
- ▶ Naibod MC ▶ Naibod Arc

What are progressions?

Life Progressions software uses Secondary Progressions to display a slow, steady movement that represents your own personal evolution. The aspects shown in a chart are long lasting, and understanding them is indispensable to understanding your own inner growth. This software allows you to experiment with a variety of methods. TimeLine

Forecasting Report by Michael Erlewine and Richard Nolle

A Matrix Staff
Favorite Selection

TimeLine is a powerful forecasting tool. You can glimpse events, look at long or short time periods; get an overview or delve into the details.

Progressions, transits, and directions all in one!

This is the most comprehensive forecasting report software that incorporates several techniques commonly used by astrologers.

- ▶ Transits compare where the planets are now with where they were at birth. They vary in intensity according to their duration, which depends on the rate of motion of the transiting planet. Transits are found by referring to an ephemeris of the planets' positions for a given year and comparing it to the natal chart. TimeLine does this for you.
- ▶ Progressions measure the natural motions of planets against the zodiac during the early part of life, based on the equation that one day or one month equals one year in your life. TimeLine supports Secondary and Quotidian (1 and 2) major progressions, as well as Tertiary and Minor progressions.
- ▶ Directions look at what happens within a day, according to an equation that one degree of diurnal motion equals one day in your life. Thus evolves a symbolic method of forecasting based on adding a fixed arc to the natal planets and comparing the directed positions to the natal positions to evaluate the occurrence of aspects.
- ▶ Ingresses are the entrance of the sun, moon, or any planet into a house or sign of the zodiac, with a resulting alteration of its influence. TimeLine allows you to determine the moment of ingress with great accuracy.

- ▶ Eclipses involve our two most influential celestial bodies in their strongest aspects, creating the single most measurable radical change to the earth's magnetic field. Eclipse points in the natal chart bring about "crisis" situations involving the house in which they appear and any planets aspecting to them. The duration of effect for a given eclipse is uncertain and debatable. TimeLine uses perhaps the most commonly accepted method: that the effect lasts until the next eclipse – lunar to lunar, solar to solar.

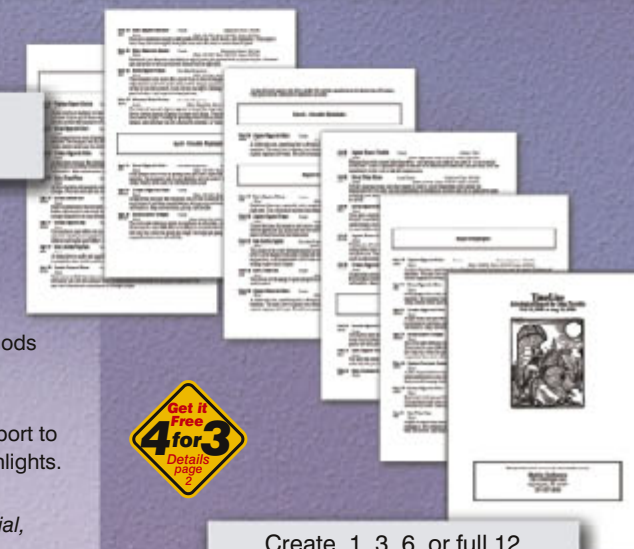

A Look Inside TimeLine

- ▶ Report highlights cover major events (those with a duration of longer than about two months).
- ▶ Monthly format divides reports into separate monthly chapters, including a monthly highlight for events with a duration longer than 16 days. A strength key, where hits of longer duration are given more stars than those of short duration.
- ▶ Starting positions prints the house and sign locations (and interpretive paragraphs) of active planets for the report starting date.

See Sample reports at www.astrologysoftware.com

Sky Log

Forecasting Report by Steven Forrest

An exceptional forecasting program that uses both Transits and Progressions

We know many astrologers will want to include both reports (The Sky Within [page 24] and Sky Log) with their chart services, as companion pieces. Sky Log is a big report, with many options. It covers both transits and progressions – subjects usually requiring separate reports.

The complete Sky Log report for a year's transit and progression aspects can run between 50 and 100 pages! Every page is packed with useful information you can use immediately.

That spells “chart service powerhouse,” but it might be more than astrologers will want to give at one time (or their clients will want to receive). For this reason, Sky Log can be customized by printing any or all of the three different reports (called “scans”) in time periods of 3, 6, 9, and 12 months (Professional version only). The Express Personal version allows you to run a 3-month report on a date you choose. Thus Sky Log gives your chart service a variety of new options.

Sky Log creates a report on an individual's transits and secondary progressions. There are three sections: The Invitation, The Means, and The Details, each of which is organized chronologically (rather than by planet), making for a more flowing and intuitive report.

A Sky Log report offers:

▶ The Invitation

This gives the big picture, including an analysis of a few major transits and secondary progressions.

▶ The Means

The Means covers “second order” events, emphasizing major sextiles and trines.

▶ The Details

This is a month-by-month, aspect-by-planet astrological view of the year based on the Moon, Mercury, and Venus; it is organized into 12 chapters (one for each month).

Lunar Return

Forecasting Report by John Townley

This report is not only one of our most useful, it's one of the most fun!

We all know the moon is like a joker dancing through the natal chart each month, freely playing with and manipulating emotions and events. Sometimes the effect is harmless, even fun. Then there are those days for which you need to be forewarned or you may suddenly find yourself deeply in the middle of something or involved with someone you should have avoided. A personalized Lunar Return report provides you with an accurate "moon forecast" that will help guide you safely through the month. With this tool in hand you can avoid the rocks and sail smoothly through even the roughest tide-tossed seas.

What's in a Lunar Return report?

As the Moon speeds through the month, the minute hand of your Lunar Return moves through all 12 houses of both your natal chart and the Lunar Return chart, as well as hitting both sets of planets. There are 47 such events, and they repeat every month, but not at the same time or in the same order. Though the events repeat each month, the "playing field" changes, thus the basic transits have a different role to play every month, while retaining their core implications. The individual transits begin with the symbolism of the degree at which they occur, followed by an interpretation of their general meaning, and finish with specific "issues and influences" which they may bring into your life. Finally, your personal Void-of-Course Moon periods will vary widely and are important timing factors in the daily decision-making process, so keep a close eye on them.

Report Sections include

- ▶ An introduction to your Lunar Return, and a guide to using your report for maximum benefit.
- ▶ Your Lunar Return explored by planet. Includes both ascendant and node.
- ▶ Planetary highlights give you a critical reading of significant activity during the cycle.
- ▶ Detailed Daily Events.

Solar Return PREDICTIONS

Forecasting Report by Ray Merriman

Like his book on the technique: Solar Return Book of Predictions, Ray Merriman's collaboration with Matrix created a software program that is THE standard of Solar Return interpretive forecasts.

This is the most comprehensive and detailed interpretation of the Solar Return Chart. The software calculates the position of the planets in both the natal and the Solar Return chart, and generates an incredible interpretive report.

A Matrix Staff Favorite Selection

Don't let a birthday pass without looking at your Solar Return

Solar Return Predictions is actually two reports in one: the report highlights specific themes and life issues in effect for the chosen year; it then forecasts significant dates and predictions for those dates. It includes a complete listing and interpretation of the 80 dates during the year that involve progressed solar return angles.

Solar Return interprets the six-week time bands of the progressed solar return Moon to the planetary positions and solstice points of your natal and solar return planets and angles. You get a thorough report of what to expect in the coming year — and exactly when. There's nothing else like it!!

The Solar Return Report contains:

- ▶ An overview of the year
- ▶ House location of the solar return Sun
- ▶ Conjunctions to house cusps
- ▶ Planets aspecting the horizon
- ▶ Planets relative to their natal position
- ▶ Significant time periods using the solar return progressed Moon
- ▶ The sun's transits of solar return houses
- ▶ Progressed solar return angles
- ▶ Notes on keeping a journal
- ▶ Importance of your solar return location.

Developed for astrologers ready to take the step to the next level of astrological interpretation.

Each Midpoint Keys report gives several levels of interpretation: emotional, spiritual, physical, and health.

The Midpoint Keys program can help you add greater detail and accuracy to your chart analysis, making the interpretations you present to your clients more active and robust.

This is the tool specifically designed for professional astrologers and aspiring professionals seeking to develop their skills and their use of valuable midpoints in chart analysis.

We astrologers are accustomed to using planetary pairs when they are found in a chart, but may find them difficult to use when they make no aspect. This is mainly due to the quantity of possible midpoints and the difficulty in selecting those that are significant. For most astrologers, time and experience help them learn to sort their way through all the possibilities. Here is an excellent way to accelerate your learning curve and begin to apply the use of midpoints immediately.

Each Midpoint Keys report gives you several levels of interpretation: emotional, spiritual, physical, and health. Midpoint Keys is a program for astrologers this is hardcore astrology at its very best.

R. Stephen Erlewine

When creating a report Midpoint Keys Select:

- ▶ Transit, progressed, or directed searches, as well as Arc Type; Solar Arc, Naibod Arc, or Degree for Year.
- ▶ The transiting planets you wish to interpret.
- ▶ The Progressed planets to interpret, including ASC, and MC
- ▶ The directed Planets to display and interpret
- ▶ 90 degree or 90 and 45 degree aspects.
- ▶ Your report start date and the duration of your report from 6 months, 1, 2, 3, or 5 years
- ▶ Exactly which sections to include in each report you create.

I have been a professional astrologer for 15 years. I have used directed solar arcs, the 90-degree solar arc bi-wheel, and the 90-degree midpoint trees — as Laura DesJardins was one of my main teachers. The predictive accurateness of this method is truly astounding.

Tibetan Astrology

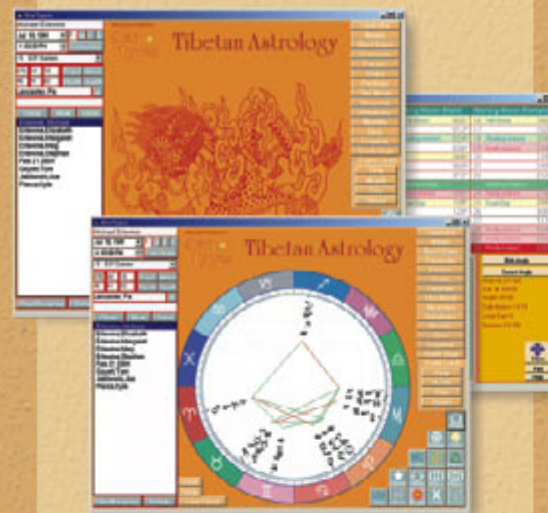

by Michael Erlewine

Michael Erlewine has been studying and practicing Tibetan Buddhism for more than 35 years. He has made two pilgrimages to Tibet, can read Tibetan script, and has studied with many learned lamas of the Karma Kagyu lineage. Michael authored our first Tibetan Astrology program, this is NOT an update* of that program – it is an entirely new program, the most comprehensive ever produced. All the major techniques used by Tibetan lamas of all lineages in a single program. If you are a beginner, the techniques are presented in an easy-to-learn manner. If you are a more advanced practitioner, you will find built into the program a complete practice calendar present in the familiar monthly calendar format that we here in the West use. The program also gives you the ability to include Buddhist festival dates and saints days of your choosing. The program also includes a complete astrological calculation package, with chart wheels and aspectarians.

This new Tibetan Astrology program includes:

- ▶ The Tirgrams ▶ The Mewas ▶ The Elements ▶ The Yearly Totals ▶ Tomb Signs ▶ The Relations ▶ The Lunar Months ▶ Log-Men ▶ Monthly Calendar ▶ Daily Details ▶ Best Days ▶ Earth Lords: Year ▶ Earth Lords: Month ▶ Earth Lords: Day ▶ Earth Lords: Hourly ▶ Custom Saints Days ▶ Resource Articles

Internationally known astrologer/author Noel Tyl says this about Michael Erlewine and his influence on modern astrology: "Michael is the giant influence whose creativity is forever imprinted on astrologers' work since the beginning of the Computer era! From crucial algorithms to interpretation zenith, Erlewine has been the leading light of astrology's modern growth. After inventing the technological applications, he humanized it all, adding perception and incisive practical analyses to modern, computerized astrology. Now, for a second generation of astrologers and their public, Erlewine's genius continues with StarTypes ... and it's simply amazing!"

The StarTypes Series

Michael helped revolutionize computerized astrology in the early '70s. An archivist of popular culture, Erlewine pioneered Internet content founding the All Music Guide, All Movie Guide, and All Game Guide, today some of the most popular entertainment sites on the web. In recent years, Michael has found time to work with astrology once again, producing the StarTypes series of astrological programs. Combining tarot card-like graphics with astrological wisdom is something Erlewine has always wanted to do. "This is astrology as I like it, with lots of images to spark my imagination," he writes, "I hope you enjoy these programs as much as I do." Check out the StarTypes programs at the right.
